Par. 4 Special Orders # 277 Date Nov. 14, 1942

Report to your Local Board at 2:15 PM on Nov. 28, 1942

At your request, you have been released from Active Service and transferred to the Enlisted Reserve Corps (ERC), Special Order Number shown above, a Copy which is attached to this Letter. Carry this Letter and Copy of Special Order on your person at all times until you arrive at the Reception Center.

You will be returned at Government expense, to the City in which your Local Board is located, in a group, under the Command of your Leader, who is charged with maintaining order enroute, and who has full authority of a Non-commissioned Officer. He has been furnished necessary transportation and Meal Tickets for your group.

You are recalled to Active Duty on the date shown in your Special Order and must report promptly at the place, at the time and on the date shown above, from which point you will be sent with your Group to the Reception Center at Government Expense.

While on Inactive Status as a member of the Enlisted Reserve Corps, you are not entitled to pay and allowance. Any Medical attention or Hospitalization after your arrival at the City in which your Local Board is located and until you begin your journey to the Reception Center will be at your own expense. Should you ~~through sickness or for any other reason be unable to report to your Local Board at once for further instructions.~~ Your Local Board must be kept informed of your address at all times.

After your arrival at the Reception Center you will be required to send your Civilian clothing home or make other disposition of it.

Failure to report at the time, place and date indicated will constitute a very serious offense. The 61st Article of War covering absence without leave, and the 58th Article of War covering Desertion have been read and explained to you. Failure to carry out these instructions and failure to report to your Local Board as directed will subject you to trial and punishment under these Articles of War.

"Extensions of period of Inactive Status, or furlough for additional time after reporting to the Reception Center, will be granted only in extreme emergencies. Should such an extreme emergency occur, such as serious injury or serious illness, you are directed to contact the Commanding Officer of the Reception Center in advance or to present your request after arrival at the Reception Center. The Reception Center Commander is the only one authorized to grant such a request.
