Dear Son:

I received your wonderful long letter and you know how much I love it and I read it every day until the next one comes in. I matter what you have to say I like to hear it. We are having very warm weather like summer right now and it should be snowing and I am sorry you are not having the same. I think Lena told you we got all the pictures and your $1.00. The pictures are very nice but I wish I had one nice big one of you. You didn't change. You look the same to me but more like a man. Everything is the same here at home. We all feel fine. Lena wrote you a long letter telling you everything that's new so I hope you got it. I'll tell you I don't have much to say. You know I'm always home and so don't have nothing new to tell you. I am always busy on something. Right now I am peeling corn and your Uncle helps me every night so we pass time. Lena works every day and comes home late every nite. Goodbye for now. I will write soon again.
