Dearest Mom & Dad - "Southern France" Sept-6-1944
What a day it is, it started to rain at 3:00 this morning and by golly it's still raining, not hard just enough to make it a lousy day - it sure don't look like it's going to clear up any time today either - what a day this is going to be - fanny How's the weather back home? this is the first bad weather we've had since we landed in France - other than today the weather has been super.
I'm feeling fine, am in the best of health & everything is going along swell - I sure hope everything and everyone at home is just as good. How's Pop getting along with his work?
I hope he's not working too hard, if he is tell him to take it easy - you heard what I said Pop - take it easy and that's an order.
We haven't been getting very much mail, but I'm sure it won't be long before we get it regular - I hope. Boy this sure is a boring day, nothing to read and not a thing to write about - I guess it does have to rain though - so why kick about it. I sure hope this darn war is over soon so we can all come home. Say hello to every one for me - I'll write again soon - I love you and bless over all of you always -
